(14.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property whatsoever situated and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(15.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(16.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(17.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company, or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(18.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(19.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts as may be determined by the Company of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(23.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated, or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(24.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(25.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(26.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(27.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(29.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(30.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1936.
